VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL

Submitted by Deb Serverns

Vacation Bible School had its LIFT OFF! June 25th, 2007. We had a fun-filled week of teaching children how to "soar to new heights with God." Sixty Five children danced, sang, played games, ate snacks, made crafts, discovered how science and God are related and learned how five stories from the Bible translate directly to their everyday lives. And...they did it all while having a great time.

The children began each morning as a group in Celebration Hall. There they danced to songs like "Lift Off" and "Do Lord." From Celebration Hall, the children proceeded (thanks to Matt McCullough...our timekeeper) to one of five rotation stations – craft, snacks, discovery (science), recreation and lesson time.

Crafts were led by Jessie Boyle and with Renee Cloutier's help, the children made wonderful crafts like T-shirts, pinwheels, wind chimes and mirrors (designed and created by Ken Boyle).

Cris Argenbright took on the large task of snacks with help from Taylor Glenn and one of our new friends, Nancy Hammett. They made sure that the children had healthy, fun snacks each and every day. And...on Friday at 11:00 a.m., they invited parents to join their children in a special picnic catered by Chick-Fil-A. It was a great day of fellowship.

Meghann McCullough with help from her friend, Timothy, planned a week of extra fun activities for the kids. They played with parachutes, ran races, and even had a special water day on Friday.

Discovery (science) was a new area this year and Jonathan Buehler with help from his mother Carolyn Buehler, spent the week teaching the children how science and God are related through simple hands on experiments and activities.

And most importantly...Tammy Waddleton took the children on an adventure each day to one of five Bible stories. They learned about Abraham, Joseph, Mary, Zacchaeus and Peter when Tammy told the story through their

From Pastor Randy

A Slip & Fall & More

Most of you already know that on Father's day I took a nasty fall with wet feet in my garage and broke my knee cap. It was a series of firsts from that moment on. It was the first time for the fire truck and paramedics to arrive, a first ambulance ride and ER visit, a first broken bone, and then on my birthday, a first-time admission to the hospital for a probable knee infection. I have been blessed with good health my whole life. More than one nurse even moaned, "I wish I had that low blood pressure!"

Paul's words in Romans 5:3-5 ring true and get at the heart of what's happening to me (and you too) on the spiritual side of life. "Not only so, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, because we know that suffering produces perseverance; perseverance, character; and character, hope and hope does not disappoint us, because God has poured out his love into our hearts by the Holy Spirit, whom he has given us.

I prefer these words to the ever popular, "Everything happens for a reason" that tries to point to a positive future in everything but doesn't make sense out of the truly awful things that happen to some people. Please don't tell me that God prompts and causes abuse, neglect, and even murder for some greater purpose. God feels the pain of those things right along with us and they are NOT part of some larger, intended "Plan."

While I am at it, I prefer Paul's words to another oft-quoted platitude, "God doesn't give you more than you can handle." While I appreciate the real encouragement that we all can handle more than we think, the words fall empty and are actually hurtful to countless millions who suffer needlessly and are trapped in circumstances that are horrible and who can't cope with life. If you are feeling overwhelmed, and hopeless, it only makes you feel worse to hear that you shouldn't feel overwhelmed and hopeless, and in fact have failed in "handling" God-given things. We are then persuaded into thinking that God "gives" everything including that which is truly an abomination. To make matters worse, now we are called to love a God who "hurts" us. More than one Christian has gotten trapped in the endless maze of that kind of thinking. This little platitude creates more problems than it solves. Forget it!

John Wesley, the founder of our Christian denomination had it right. His last words of life were reported to be, "Best of all, God is with us." That's what we need to hear when we are ill, or when we are caring for someone who is ill or suffering. Those words of encouragement and hope need to linger in our ears when we are facing difficult days and things don't change when we want them to. The truth is that the Lord knows us, notices us, and loves us. Remembering God's care for us in all times and expecting God's marvelous surprises in the midst of anything is enough! That's what we need! See you in church where we can ponder these and other good things in Christ together.

"Church Leadership"

Submitted by Rev. David Brostrom
Pastoral Consultant

All communities where people interact and assemble are looking for people who have leadership skills. The church is no exception. The Holy Spirit is working among us and is involved in developing leadership. He calls forth believers to minister and gives gifts of talent and skill to help us succeed in our leadership task. The Holy Spirit may be equipping you for serious ministry. He will make it clear that He is wanting you and calling you to use your given gift for His glory. It may be that you will display a special talent, including the arts and especially in human interaction, coping yourself and helping others with your skills like teaching children. TUMC needs your leadership. Let us know where your talent fits in and can be used to grow the church. Please use your Spirit given gift in the heart of this congregation. Leadership will come from those who have led in the past as they see the wisdom to get going again. It will also come from you who are responding to the call of God to serve. Leadership will come from those who know they can contribute more. Perhaps the Holy Spirit is calling forth your talent and gift in the church. If so, let it happen so we can all rejoice with you.

eyes each day. It was an exciting and very relevant way for the children to learn and translate their stories to every day life.

And finally...the children returned to Celebration Hall at the end of each day for reflection time with Peggy Dreher. The children worked in their workbooks at this time with help from their group leaders. Speaking of...we can't thank the group leaders enough for their support and hard work. Their job was to make sure that the children had a great time and assisted in all the five stations. Our group leaders were Nursery – Hope Zangl, Gera Thole & Betty Aseltine, Yellow- Sandra Hansen, Blue – Diane Martinez, Green – Susan Bane & Jan Martinez, Orange – Tori Fisher, and Red – Katie Hansen. Other helpers included Patricia Greenbaum and Lucy Kelly & Ken Boyle (our Sound Tech). Thanks so much for all your help and hard work.

Our goal this year for VBS was fifty children, we exceeded that by an average attendance of sixty-five children. Half of the children attended from TUMC, leaving the remaining half as new attendees from the community. This was thanks to Trina Faulkner, who volunteered to take flyers to a few area grade schools and our scholarship program that allowed children from the Bread From Heaven Food Pantry to attend for free. Please welcome these new families warmly when you see them. Many families have already begun to attend Sunday services here at TUMC.

Thanks to everyone.

SCRIP NEWS

Submitted by Shirley Johnson

Our scrip fundraising program has generated a lot of funds for TUMC in the past. By using scrip we have raised about $40,000 since 2002 and those funds have really helped our church meet its financial goals. This year more members are using scrip so we will be able to raise more funds than the $5,800 we did last year. This year the Finance Committee's goal

4th of July at TUMC was a BLAST!

Great fun was had at this year's 4th of July Family Fun Night. People of all ages joined together for fun, food and fireworks.

The UM Women raised money for the Bread From Heaven Food Pantry by selling hotdogs, chips, drinks and ice cream. Special thanks to all who helped with food sales: Hallie Sebanc, Diane Martinez, Judy Hernandez, Jessie Boyle, Marilyn Barger, Bea Waite, Christina Gonzales, Scott Hernandez.

Children's Ministries had special Independence Day activities scheduled for the children and your Co-Directors, with the help of the Showalter family, made sure that all children were able to participate in games and crafts to win prizes. We made firecracker hats and ribbon sparklers, had a watermelon eating contest, played parachute games as well as many other lawn games. We ended the night by selling light up items. All money collected for the light-up sales will be put toward the purchase of TUMC's very own Jolly Jump (for kids ages 10 and under). It made its debut at the Family Fun Night and will be used for many upcoming church events. We would like to thank some very special Jolly Jump helpers: Doris Elder, Trina Falkner, Hope Zangl, Heather & Alan Sheaffer, Janet Galbraith, Claire Chapman-Wright and Renee Cloutier.

Several men from the Monks group attended the parking lot. Thank you John Cloutier, Rudy Martinez, Bill Hillier and Cliff Elder. They managed, by selling empty parking spaces to the the general public later in the night, to make $350 for the Bread From Heaven Food Pantry. Pastor Randy made a special appearance just in time to judge the cookie contest. The cookies were then sold for a small fee to the public. All in all, the night was a great success. We hope you had fun. See you at the next big family event.

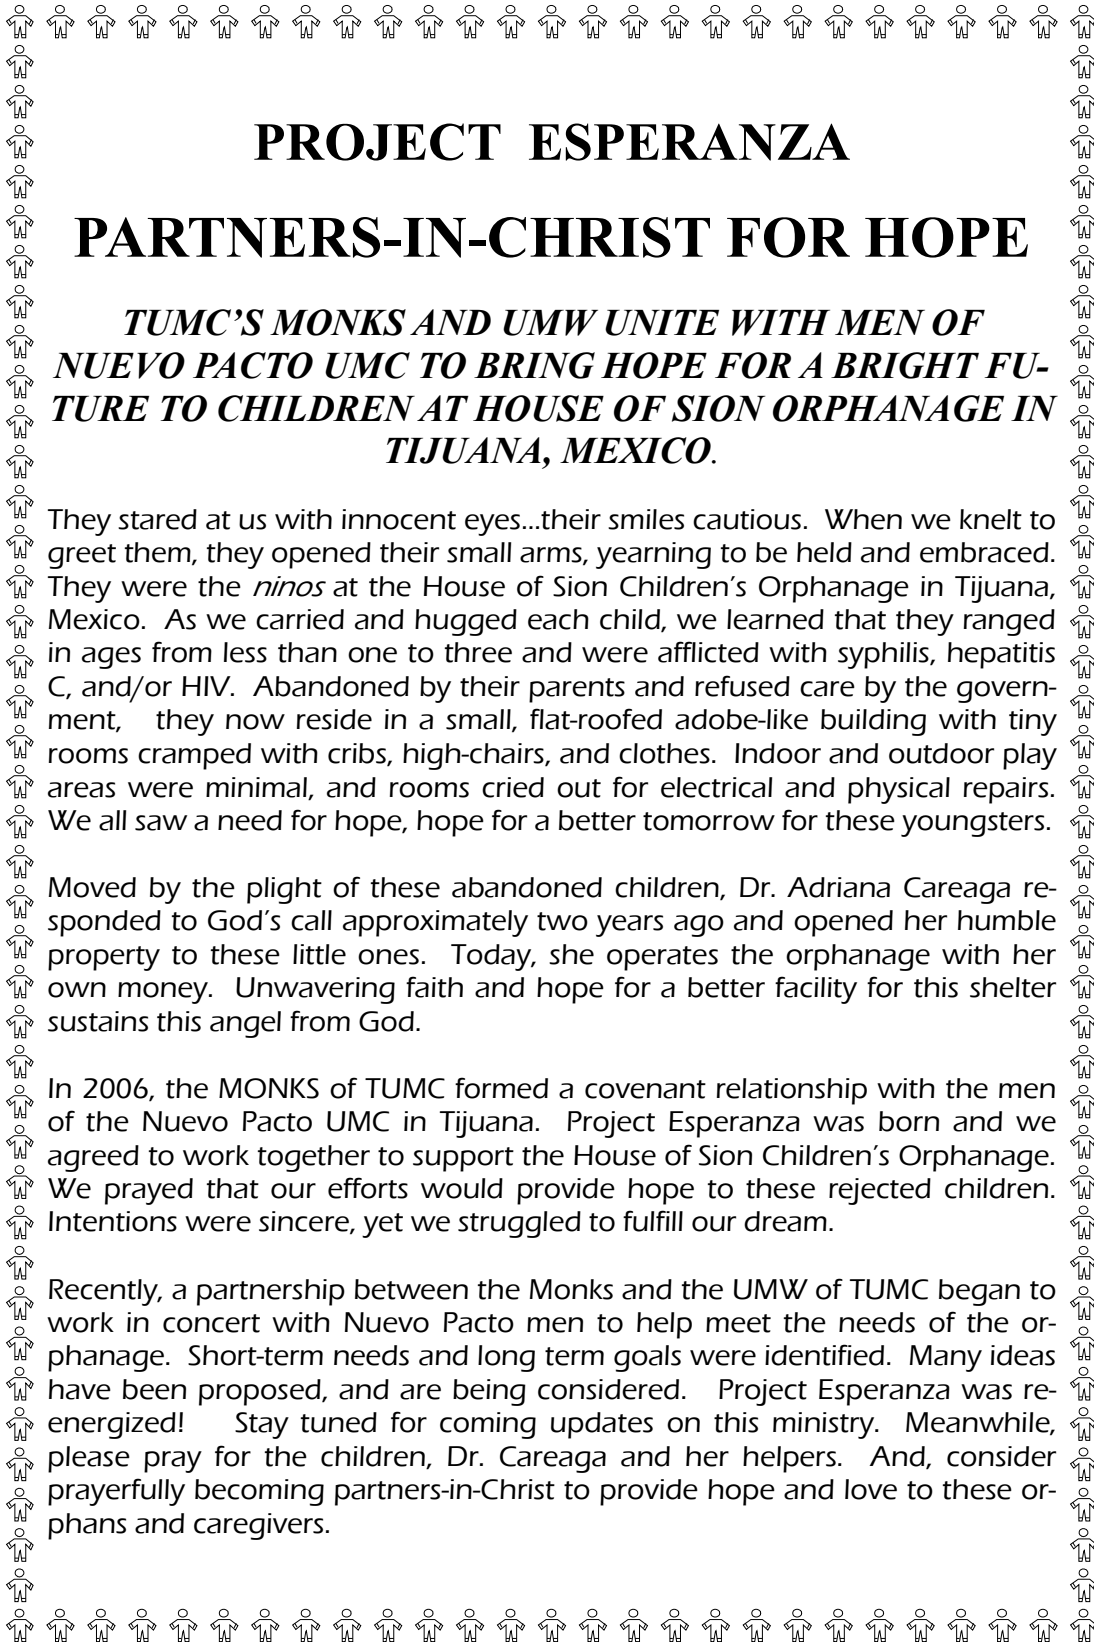

OGA FOR LIFE Submitted by Deb Potts

YOGA? What is it, and why practice the discipline? These are two excellent questions. Yoga is a term derived from the ancient Hindu language of India referred to as Sanskrit, and literally defined as "to join, unite, or yoke". This union involves the three dimensions of life-the mind, body, and spirit. Really the sole purpose of the physical practice of Yoga (postures or asanas) is to prepare the body for meditating (centering prayer) in order to unite the individual's mind and body with "Spirit", which in our tradition as Christians would mean to unite or connect with God and Christ. Yoga and its practice is not a religion or form of faith! It is, however, a disciplined and philosophic way of living and practicing a life filled with well-being, service, and connection to one's path for "Truth". Therefore, practicing Yoga only serves to enhance an individual's selected spiritual path, religion, or faith. It is an inclusive way of living rather than exclusive practice.

From a purely physical standpoint, the practice of asanas (physical postures via movement and breath) will enhance your whole body's well-being, and prepare and calm the mind for meditation or prayer. Specifically, practicing Yoga will benefit the practitioner in the following ways: stress reduction, build strong muscles and bones, enhance flexibility and balance, strengthen the back & knees, stabilize the joints, improve circulation & breath capacity, and improve balance.

If you are seeking better physical health and inner peace, then practicing Yoga is the perfect solution! I invite you to join our group on Thursday mornings from 10:30-11:30 a.m. the 1st, 2nd, and 4th week of each month. All levels are welcome to participate from beginner to advanced in a fun, relaxing, safe, and non-competitive environment. I am a registered Yoga Alliance instructor with over 300 hours of advanced training, and I encourage you to beat the summer heat with the calming effects of Yoga. Classes are FREE at TUMC in Room 1 or Celebration Hall. If you have questions, please contact me. Please come join the FUN this summer. Grace & Peace.

PROJECT ESPERANZA

PARTNERS-IN-CHRIST FOR HOPE

TUMC'S MONKS AND UMW UNITE WITH MEN OF NUEVO PACTO UMC TO BRING HOPE FOR A BRIGHT FUTURE TO CHILDREN AT HOUSE OF SION ORPHANAGE IN TIJUANA, MEXICO.

They stared at us with innocent eyes...their smiles cautious. When we knelt to greet them, they opened their small arms, yearning to be held and embraced. They were the ninos at the House of Sion Children's Orphanage in Tijuana, Mexico. As we carried and hugged each child, we learned that they ranged in ages from less than one to three and were afflicted with syphilis, hepatitis C, and/or HIV. Abandoned by their parents and refused care by the government, they now reside in a small, flat-roofed adobe-like building with tiny rooms cramped with cribs, high-chairs, and clothes. Indoor and outdoor play areas were minimal, and rooms cried out for electrical and physical repairs. We all saw a need for hope, hope for a better tomorrow for these youngsters.

Moved by the plight of these abandoned children, Dr. Adriana Careaga responded to God's call approximately two years ago and opened her humble property to these little ones. Today, she operates the orphanage with her own money. Unwavering faith and hope for a better facility for this shelter sustains this angel from God.

In 2006, the MONKS of TUMC formed a covenant relationship with the men of the Nuevo Pacto UMC in Tijuana. Project Esperanza was born and we agreed to work together to support the House of Sion Children's Orphanage. We prayed that our efforts would provide hope to these rejected children. Intentions were sincere, yet we struggled to fulfill our dream.

Recently, a partnership between the Monks and the UMW of TUMC began to work in concert with Nuevo Pacto men to help meet the needs of the orphanage. Short-term needs and long term goals were identified. Many ideas have been proposed, and are being considered. Project Esperanza was re-energized! Stay tuned for coming updates on this ministry. Meanwhile, please pray for the children, Dr. Careaga and her helpers. And, consider prayerfully becoming partners-in-Christ to provide hope and love to these orphans and caregivers.

2007 ANNUAL CONFERENCE

Submitted by Rudy Martinez, Pauline Fields, Earl Fields

The California Pacific Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church on June 21-24, 2007 was a wonderful experience for us. We had the opportunity to witness the true diversity of our denomination making decisions about the church's mission and how to be true followers of Christ.

The theme for this conference was "Be the Cup Overflowing-with Peace. The bible study sessions continued this theme and in the "Wesley Circles" it gave us an opportunity to dialogue, and pray with and for one another in smaller groups. One of the questions Pauline's group had to respond to was, "How can we live as a hopeful people?"

Our Church was awarded a Certificate and Recognized as the "Outstanding Missionary Supporting Church in the Riverside District for 2006" at the Missionary Luncheon. Guest Speaker at the luncheon Heather Wilson stated, "We are all called to mission ministry whether it is local or international."

The Youth Worship service was a stirring experience as each young person talked of their witness to the word. The music and dance provided by the Tongan congregation from Anaheim was upbeat and joyful.

Bishop Mary Ann Swenson was given a surprise 60th birthday celebration by the Congregation singing "Happy Birthday" with party hats on and showering her with gifts that will help other people. Examples of some of these gifts were 60 tools to do hurricane recovery work on the Gulf Coast, and 60 bed nets for "Nothing But Nets" campaign to end Malaria in Africa.

While there were many resolutions to petitions targeted for the General Conference, the Strategic Initiative Proposals focusing on the Annual Conference seemed to be of particular importance to the local church. The four proposals were:

I. ESTABLISH A CENTER FOR LEADERSHIP EXCELLENCE IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE CLAREMONT SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY including the position of an Executive Director of Leadership Development also shared with the seminary.

II. RENEW AND RE-SHAPE YOUTH AND YOUNG ADULT MINISTERIES THROUGH A DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT FOR YOUNG PEOPLE, serving within Connectional Ministries, with a primary focus to identify and develop the emerging generation of future church leaders for all ministry settings (age focus is 10-30).

III. FUTURE LEADERSHIP INCENTIVES. Provide funding and oversight of said positions for fostering the development of younger clergy, through direct and indirect support.

NOTES FROM THE TUMC MUSIC DEPARTMENT

Submitted by Earl G. Fields

After four months as your Music Director, I want to thank Pastor Randy, the congregation, Staff Parish Relations Committee, Church council and the choir members for the wonderful support they have provided in shepherding me through these first few months. And I must also take this opportunity to thank Dr. Corry Bell for his support both musically and personally. We are fortunate to have a person of his professional skill level as both our accompanist and technical music mentor.

This summer, you will be served by a variety of musical offerings. I have focused on the talents we have in the church as well as others in our faith community, and members of the Temecula Valley Master Chorale. Each Sunday through August will feature different vocalists, with some additional special treats at the end of July and August – Lloyd Ebrecht and Ken Hedrick.

MELANIE GONZALEZ – SOPRANO – Soloist for Sunday, July 8, 2007

Melanie Gonzalez has been a student of music since the early age of four. With the encouragement of her father, who was a jazz pianist, Melanie began studying the piano and soon discovered that she loved singing as well. She began performing in children's theater groups which continued throughout her childhood. This eventually led to Melanie's first professional theater debut in the L.A. cast of "Evita" at the Shubert Theater (Directed by famed Broadway director, Hal Prince) in which Melanie became a member of Equity Actors Union. She continued her career and has appeared in several professional musical productions at various Los Angeles theaters, (Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, Pasadena Playhouse) and is a graduate of the Los Angeles Music Center Theater Workshop. Melanie has also appeared at LA Cabaret, The Roxy, and other dinner clubs singing jazz standards and has sung backup vocals for Barry Manilow. It was at the later part of her career that she fell in love with Opera, and performed with a tour company of "Pirates of Penzance". Other opera credits include "The Marriage of Figaro" (Susanna) by Mozart, Bizet's "Carmen", "L'Orfeo" (Euridice). Melanie is currently singing with the Temecula Valley Master Chorale and is a voice teacher in her private studio in Riverside County.

ALAN SHEAFFER – TENOR – Soloist for Sunday, July 8, 2007

Alan relocated to Temecula with his family in December 2000, as an Industrial Engineer for Fleetwood Enterprises in Riverside. Locally, Alan is the tenor section leader in The Temecula Valley Master Chorale and sings with the Pops Choir and Chancel Choir of the Temecula United Methodist Church. Alan has been highlighted as a tenor soloist in numerous performances of Handel's 'Messiah', in productions of the 'Seven Last Words of Christ' by Theodore Dubois, music from 'The Phantom of the Opera' and various works of Mendelssohn from 'Elijah'. Prior to moving from Allentown, Pennsylvania, Alan sang with Summer Harmony (Premier Men's Chorus of the Lehigh Valley), the Asbury Chancel Choir, and was a musical director for ACTS (Asbury Chancel Theatrical Society). He was a member of the Juniata College Concert Choir under the direction of Bruce Hirsch and the Penn State Concert Choir under the direction of Dr. D. Douglas Miller. As a member of these organizations, Alan had the opportunity to travel and sing in many venues throughout the Mid-Atlantic States, including St Paul's in New York City, Eisenhower Auditorium, State College, PA, Octave Hall at is to raise $10,000. That may sound impossible, but it is a real possibility. Let me tell you how.

Here is a scenario for us all to consider. Let's imagine that 100 families decide to purchase just $100 worth of Stater Bros. gift cards (scrip) per month. That amount sold would total $10,000 worth of Stater Bros. scrip and since we purchase the scrip at a 5% discount the sales would generate about $500 per month or $6,000 per year just for selling scrip for one grocery store. If the same 100 people would buy $200 per month then they would generate $1,000 per month or $12,000 per year for TUMC. Remember that these funds are raised without donations or any cost to our members!

Another way to participate in the scrip program is by registering your grocery club cards for automatic rebates that you generate when you purchase groceries and scan your linked club card at checkout. If you have a computer and want to register your cards yourself you can pick up a complete list of instructions on how to sign up for each grocery store at the scrip table. Otherwise, you can fill in your information on the registration sheets at the scrip table (your club card number is required) and we will finish the registration process for you. For Albertsons, you can borrow a community partner card from the scrip table and link it to your Albertsons Preferred Card by scanning it the next time you check out. Please return it to any scrip seller as soon as possible so that others can use it to link their cards.

Let's meet our fundraising challenge this year and take advantage of the rebates that are offered to us by many of the grocery stores in town. If we all participate in this fundraiser in some way, then we will reach our goal of $10,000 in 2007. It's easy to participate and it really helps TUMC.

IV. DISTRICT COACHES AND COMMUNITY DEVELOPERS: provide funding for district based congregational coaches and community developers to provide congregation and community specific guidance and resources in both revitalization and the formation of new ministries. Of the four, number III, "Future Leadership Incentives" would seem to be of particular interest for congregations similar to TUMC.

the World Headquarters for Allen Organ, Scottish Rite Cathedral in Allentown, PA, the Great Auditorium in Ocean Grove, NJ, the Lincoln Memorial and the National Cathedral in Washington, D.C. In 2005, Alan performed internationally with the Temecula Valley Master Chorale in Italy at such venues as St. Mark's Basilica, Venice, Santa Maria Maggiore Rome and St. Peter's Basilica at the Vatican.

In looking forward to the fall and winter months, we hope to engage more of our youth in the music programs and target some of the music, especially on Youth Sundays to more contemporary offerings. The Chancel choir will continue to bring you the best quality and variety of worship experiences it is capable of. In addition, I hope to invite more participation by other choirs throughout the year so that you will have an opportunity to experience a wider variety of music offerings.

As we begin planning for 2007-2008, my major concern is the scarcity of people who have committed to singing in the choir on a regular basis. We need a base of at least 25 people in order to even out the load of working two services each Sunday, and to provide something beyond simple hymn singing. The same applies to our youth music ministry. There are many more young people that I see in the congregation from Sunday to Sunday that may enjoy the experience of participating in the music part of the church activity. Sometimes they need the push of a parent or grand parent to get involved. Please encourage those in your family as well as friends who may be on the edge of making a commitment to talk with us about participating in the music of the church.

If you sing or play an instrument, we need your talents.

I have learned over many years that a loving, non-critical church family is the best way to grow a talent. Church folk embrace the effort and sincerity more than any other segment of society when it comes to music, so come and give us a try. Enjoy your summer.
